

Printer-friendly PDF

International activity of the WSE Group

Building the international importance and reputation of the Polish exchange is part of WSE's growth strategy.

Development of a Network of Foreign Investment Firms ? Exchange Members

Thanks to promotion activities, participation in international conferences, own conferences organized in main w

The Exchange changed the classification of WSE exchange members in 2012 by introducing local and remote

Foreign (local and remote) Exchange Members are mainly companies from many European Countries. Remot

Share of local and remote WSE members in session trading in shares on the Main Market

Year ended December 31, 2012

Source: WSE

According to WSE research, foreign investors generated 48% of turnover in 2012, modestly more (1 percentag

Investors' share in turnover on the Main Market in shares

Year ended December 31, 2012

Source: WSE

Foreign investors became more active on the futures market in 2012. The volume of turnover generated by fore

Investors' share in turnover on the futures market

Year ended December 31, 2012

Source: WSE

Attracting Foreign Issuers

The Group aims at strengthening its position of the regional financial hub through focusing its marketing activiti

In its proprietary Program WSE IPO Partner, WSE works together with a network of foreign banks, brokerage h

As of May 30, 2012, the Exchange calculates and publishes the WIG-CEE index, which at the end of 2012 com

As at December 31, 2012, the markets operated by the Exchange listed shares of 51 foreign companies, includ

Of the 51 foreign companies listed on the WSE markets, 12 are Ukrainian companies. The first Ukrainian comp

Commodity Market

Regulatory environment

The strategic programs and action plans of PolPX correspond to the implementing measures proposed by the E

The European Commission and the European Council have confirmed the expected target date of the internal e

PolPX co-operates with the Association of European Energy Exchanges (EUROPEX), the European Federation

PolPX initiatives building the Internal Electricity Market (IEM)

PolPX co-operates with the Energy Regulatory Office (URE) and the Transmission Grid Operator PSE on an in

Price Coupling of Regions (PCR) ? day-ahead market;

CEE regional market project ? day-ahead market;

project connecting the Polish market to the day-ahead market of three exchanges (Czech, Slovak, and

Cross-border Intraday (XBID) project ? intra-day market;

co-operation with the Scandinavian exchange Nord Pool Spot (NPS) ? day-ahead market opened in D

The costs of PolPX's participation in the projects of building the regional markets and the European market ma
