

Printer-friendly PDF

Commodity market

WSE added commodity trading to its operating segments in 2010. The poee WSE Energy Market opened in De WSE acquired the Polish Power Exchange in 2012 and held 100% of its shares and votes at the end of 2012. W
In those circumstances, the WSE Management Board has decided to concentrate trading in electricity in the W Participants of the operated commodity markets are the largest companies of the power sector. Activities on the

1. Operation of a commodity exchange where the following are traded:

- electricity;
- liquid and gas fuels;
- pollution emission allowances;
- property rights attached to certificates of origin;
- production limits, as well as property rights in particular CO₂

on financial instruments, whose price depends directly

2. Operation of the Register of Certificates of Origin for energy from renewable energy sources (RES), from cog

3. Clearing transactions concluded on a commodity exchange.
